Professional Background

Before becoming a full-time mediator, facilitator and coach:

- I had a successful career in international business with Mars Inc. one of the world's top companies.
- I worked in UK, European and Global roles across 7 different business functions in 20 different countries.
- As well as establishing a successful track record in delivery, I developed a deep and broad understanding of business issues, interests and imperatives. I bring this wealth of experience into my practice.

Personal Style

Clients tell me they appreciate my thoughtful and creative approach. They value the clarity I bring and the innovative way I enable groups to speak more openly, listen more carefully and identify the key issues. I work to create a sufficiently safe space to have the difficult conversations in a productive way and use a range of tools, props and models to stimulate thinking. I am outcome-focused and committed to ensuring the intervention results in a clear action plan for next steps.

"Gillian's dedication to aligning on event goals and her adept facilitation created a secure and purpose-driven environment for the team, ensuring successful decision-making and progress."
